

Expiration of Lien and Certificate

Public notice is hereby given that, according to the law (A.R.S. 42-18208), if a tax lien that was purchased on or before November 19, 2001 is not redeemed and the purchaser or purchaser's heirs or assigns fail to commence an action to foreclose the right of redemption on or before ten years from the date that the lien was purchased, the certificate of purchase or registered certificate expires and the lien is void.

Below are the name(s) of purchaser(s) who hold a tax lien(s) that are subject to expiration during the calendar year January 2011 through December 2011 and will be notified by certified mail of pending expiration.
